

Carlo Gualdaroni

After graduating in aeronautical engineering from "La Sapienza" University in Rome, Carlo Gualdaroni joined the Italian Navy as a Reserve Officer, helping to define international collaboration programmes. He left the Navy as a Lieutenant to work for industry, where his first post was as International Avionics Sales Manager for Elmer SpA. Following the acquisition of the company by Marconi Italiana (now Selex Communications SpA), he became Marconi Avionic Sales Director. After some important engagements in Selenia Communications group companies, he joined Elsag SpA in 2004 as General Manager. Then, in February 2006, he was appointed Managing Director of Elsag SpA and Managing Director of Datamat SpA, to begin the merger process between the two companies, which he has successfully completed.
